

Street Pastor input, figures and statistics for 2016

In 2016 Vennture Street Pastors interacted with 600 people of those they further helped 410 people through serious incidents.

Street Pastors are tied up in a serious incident for an average of 20 minutes.

131 Street Pastor teams of 3 people were sent out over 80 nights in 2016. We covered all Saturdays and Bank holidays of 2016 and 50% of the Fridays.

Street Pastors cleaned up 1,290 broken, full or empty bottles, handed out 688 pairs of flip flops and 824 bottles of water.

On the relational side Street Pastors had 2,254 conversations with establishments, 1,784 with members of the public of which 279 people asked 'What's a Street Pastor' and 763 people said 'Thank you'.

Amount of serious incidents:

	Friday	Saturday	Bank holiday	Total
Supporting the vulnerable	13	56	4	73
Helping the injured	9	39	2	50
Helping the impaired	37	123	8	168
Changing behaviour	10	18	2	30
Keeping people safe	25	58	6	89
				410

Time invested in serious incidents (in minutes)

	Friday	Saturday	Bank holiday	Total	Average
Supporting the vulnerable	315	1,005	45	1,365	18.7
Helping the injured	175	660	35	870	17.4
Helping the impaired	1,380	2,620	160	4,160	24.8
Changing behaviour	110	220	10	340	11.3
Keeping people safe	465	1260	55	1,780	20.0
				8,515	20.8
				142 hours

Every action taken, from getting someone home safe in a taxi to cleaning up bottles on the street can prevent a minor or massive tragedy from happening. Just have a look at the costs of some of the tragedies had they not been prevented by the work of Street Pastors.

Crime	cost
Sexual assault	£ 36,952
Physical assault	£ 1,750
Criminal damage	£ 1,053
Commercial damage	£ 1,838
Serous wounding	£ 25,700
Worst case scenario – homicide	£ 1,774,681

Source: Social & economic cost of crime – Home office report

